Panin's Bible Chronology is an absolute masterpiece of intellectual precision, consistency and brilliant insight. Panin systematically unravels the entire string of problematic chronological texts scholars have labored over for years without producing consistency or certainty. Panin does both and shows how certain fundamental errors have turned the perfect harmony of Biblical chronology into a hopeless quagmire of confusion and contradiction. The Chronology of the kings of Judah and Israel, for instance, which have been thought to be utterly impossible to reconcile, have yielded an incredible harmony with his clear and principled thinking. This book will restore your faith in the Biblical record! DJW

The Kind of Impact the Revelations Given to Maria Valtorta are Having All Around the World:

From Emilio Pisani, publisher of Valtorta's works

In the month of August of the year 2000, a message by fax and internet reached us from Russia. It was sent by an Orthodox priest, director of a Marian editing house of the Orthodox confession, with its seat in a locality of the region of Moscow. In an incorrect but quite understandable Italian he asked our permission to translate and publish in his own language the first volume of the English edition of the Work of Maria Valtorta, expressing a certainty: "this book contributes to overcoming the schism between the Catholic and Orthodox Churches." The extraordinary thing was not just in the circumstance that the Work had reached Russia and that his reading it had drawn an Orthodox priest's attention to its ecumenical value, but it is also in the fact that all this could happen without the pressured advertising and without any contact of promotional interests.

From Russia to Japan: A lay editor of Tokyo is taking care of the translation of the Work of Maria Valtorta (he has finished the first volume) which he wants to publish integrally in his country where Christians are 1.5% of the population, which is formed above all of Shintoists, followed by Buddhists. The Japanese editor has been able to conclude an agreement with us thanks to the mediation of an Italian an expert in the Japanese language and culture, and who declares that he is greatly in debt to Valtorta. It is a question of an ex-priest, rich in worldly experience, who returned to the Faith after having read Valtorta's Notebooks. After a long wait while living "as a priest", he had obtained reintegration into the priestly state.

We go to Lithuania, one of the ex-Soviet Socialist Republics. During the Soviet rule, a group of volunteers (formed of doctors, engineers, teachers, guests, students) received clandestinely from abroad some religious books, which the group translated and disseminated secretly, working by night and knowing they risked prison. They also had the volumes of the German edition of Maria Valtorta's Work which they set themselves to translate into Lithuanian, making "21 copies" with the only means at their disposal: a typewriter. Now they have a computer and printer, but above all they have freedom, and they want to contract with us for its orderly dissemination. This, in synthesis, is what has been communicated by a Mrs. di Kaunas "in the name of all the group". — Emilio Pisani
